The Nonprofit Association of Oregon: Supporting Nonprofits in Every Community

Nonprofits touch the lives of all Oregonians, and the strength of our state can be measured in part by the health and resiliency of our nonprofit organizations. NAO offers our more than 425 nonprofit members access to sound resources, cost-saving benefits, public policy advocacy, and timely news and information. From small volunteer-run cultural groups to large multi-site agencies, NAO members are on the ground making a difference every day in communities across Oregon.

Become a member of NAO today and join nonprofit members such as these organizations as we work together to build a stronger Oregon:

Adelante Mujeres	Oregon Food Bank
American Red Cross Oregon Trail Chapter	Oregon Parent Teacher Association
Ashland Independent Film Festival	Oregon Public Broadcasting
Cascade Aids Project	Rogue Gallery and Art Center
Community Cycling Center	Ronald MacDonald House of Central Oregon
Eastern Oregon Regional Arts Council	Rural Development Initiatives
Habitat for Humanity of Oregon	Salem Multicultural Institute
Libraries of Eastern Oregon (LEO)	Start Making a Reader Today (SMART)
Lincoln County Historical Society	SOLV
Metropolitan Family Service	Southern Oregon Humane Society
Native American Youth and Family Center	Western Rivers Conservancy

Fishtrap joined NAO because we know that our support comes back to us in the form of resources to help with programming and development, stronger connections to other nonprofits, and engagement with government policies. This is called “wise investing.”
